15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

In GCTE, Dharamshala, the course curriculum of the Bachelor of Education Course includes a detailed description of the importance of multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary subjects and how it proves to be beneficial for the better understanding and application of knowledge systems. The Humanities, Commerce and Science disciplines are integrated with each other and also with the other peripheral subjects that lead to the overall development of the students. It is a form of an educational approach and strategy that brings together multiple disciplines to create a comprehensive holistic learning experience under one umbrella of knowledge. It is articulately formulated to foster an understanding of the interconnectedness of various fields and how they can be integrated and for better problem-solving. Multidisciplinary education, if implemented in schools and colleges, allows students to gain a deeper understanding of the subject matter through the lens of different disciplines. This approach encourages creative thinking, critical analysis, collaboration, and communication skills. The traditional approach in education to a greater extent built on the compartmentalization of the knowledge into various disciplines which contributes to a single disciplinary approach and has a lot of limitations in terms of finding effective and potential solutions related to any domain of study. The harmonious combination of the concepts and practices of various disciplines has led to effective solutions that have accelerated the developments in all disciplines. The NEP 2020 emphasizes the need to incorporate this educational approach into the curriculum from an early age. By giving students exposure to multiple disciplines, we can help them understand their chosen field better and also develop an appreciation for diverse knowledge systems. This will enable them to become multi-skilled and versatile citizens and prepare them for a more comprehensive future. The NEP outlines several measures that will help facilitate a multidisciplinary approach to education. In GCTE, the following steps can be taken for the same: Promoting interdisciplinary studies across different educational institutions. This includes collaboration between universities, colleges, research institutions, and other organizations. Encouraging the integration of traditional Indian knowledge systems into modern curricula and providing students with a more holistic view of different topics. the peripheral hobbies and activities like painting, craft, Sports, Cultural and others be merged with the main subjects for better application. develop courses and programs that cover diverse disciplines like mathematics, science, arts, technology, and humanities. Therefore, our college is a fine example of the interdisciplinary modules that are adopted and implemented for the benefit of the students.

16.Academic bank of credits (ABC):

As per National Education Policy 2020, the Academic Bank of Credits (ABC) has been envisaged to facilitate the academic mobility of students with the freedom to study across the Higher Education Institutions in the country with an appropriate "credit transfer" mechanism from one programme to another, leading to attain a Degree/ Diploma/PG-diploma, etc., Features Allows academic institutions to lodge and maintain the integrity of the credits Maintains the authenticity and confidentiality of student credits Easy credit transfer through digital mode Faster credit recognition ABC in GCTE An NAD/ABC cell has been established to implement the NAD/ABC scheme in the college. All the students have been registered in the ABC by default when they fill up the ABC column in the university examination form Two nodal Officers have also been appointed in the cell and the name, designations and phone numbers have been displayed on the website. Students have been counselled and motivated to apply for the ABC IDs. All the students are registered under the ABC through the affiliating University. The posters of the ABC would be displayed on the campus during the time of admission and counselling. A hybrid /online/offline seminar is organised annually to create awareness regarding ABC in the college.

17.Skill development:

Skill development GCTE is a pioneer institute in instilling knowledge-based and skill-based education in students. The teaching skills practiced in the college are inclusive of all other life skills that help in the overall development of the student's personality. The student teachers who would be future mentors would require these skills for the proper emulation of the teaching methodology. This ensures that vocational education will now be included in the curricula of all schools, colleges, and universities. Educational institutions can offer two types of VETS (Vocational education and Training) qualifications to make skill development an integral part of education, a VET certificate and a VET diploma. Furthermore, for these programs to be successful, a regulated approach is required, as well as dual cooperation between organizations and vocational schools. With the advent of Industry 4.0, many trends are gaining prominence, and NEP 2020 is no exception. The essence of twenty-first Century Skills for Students involves the following concepts: Soft skills in courses and workplaces Students are being prepared for teaching jobs that require readiness needs to equip them with teaching skills They need to have the skills to process and analyze this information by overcoming the challenges occurring while navigating social situations and other circumstances Theoretical knowledge from textbooks is no longer sufficient. Students need to understand their practical application to efficiently solve students' problems. The following skills may be inculcated in the students in order to make them professionally skilled and emotionally intelligent. Creativity Problem-solving Perseverance Collaboration Information literacy Media literacy Civic literacy Social responsibility Innovation skills Thinking skills Global Awareness Self-direction Social skills Literacy skills Critical thinking Communication skills Technology skills and digital literacy Besides learning the key academic subjects, the following twenty-first-century skills need to be inculcated in the students. All the above skills are classified into the following categories: Learning Skills: Teaching skills: Life Skills: Literacy Skills: Basic skills: Intellectual skills: Interpersonal and personal skills In GCTE, we believe in the comprehensive development of the students and staff. Therefore, a proper plan has to be made to ensure that students acquire the required skills. Some ways of doing this are explained below: i. Creating Staff Capacity ii. Creating an inquiry-based environment in the classroom iii. Encouraging collaboration iv. Focus on the development of critical thinking skills v. Encourage creativity among students vi. Assessing skills of students vii. Paying special attention to students who are off the track viii. Allowing the students to lead learning Implementing the above strategies can help students acquire twenty-first-century skills besides the regular knowledge from textbooks. This will make them feel empowered be better suited to grow in the competitive world by efficiently facing challenges.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

In GCTE Dharamshala, the mission of the college is an excerpt from the Upanishad and hence the college's fundamental principle is inspired by the ancient knowledge system that focuses on education to be imbibed as a symbol of civilisation and culture. The various constructive recommendations of NEP 2020 need a pragmatic integration into our curriculum, emphasizing not only being technologically endowed but an ethical usage of the latest technologies in everyday life. It's enthralling to see that the NEP 2020 has not only recognized the glorious past of ancient India but has also drawn our attention toward the inclusion of the seminal works of stalwarts like, Charaka, Susruta, Aryabhata, Varahamihira, Maitreyi, Gargi, etc. in the present curriculum at various level from preschool to the university level. Our college is committed to encouraging the merging of the traditional and the ancient systems of knowledge and plans to encourage the following in future: Chanting of Mantras in the Morning Assembly Suggestions to include the traditional knowledge system in the syllabus Recommending traditional texts to the students Motivating the students to opt for online courses on traditional knowledge from other institutes Regular yoga classes Motivating the students to resort to Vedic style of education Thus, we can conclusively say that our college is committed to imparting the traditional system of knowledge with a modern perspective that would ensure a comprehensive and all-encompassing curriculum relevant to the global world.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Outcome-based education or outcomes-based education (OBE) is an educational theory where each part of an educational system is based on goals. By the end of the educational experience, each student should have achieved the goal. There is no single specified style of teaching or assessment in OBE, instead, classes, opportunities, and assessments should all help students achieve the specified outcomes. The role of the faculty adapts into instructor, trainer, facilitator, and/or mentor based on the outcomes targeted. OBE can primarily be distinguished from traditional education methods by the way it incorporates three elements: theory of education, a systematic structure for education a specific approach to instructional practice It organizes the entire educational system towards what is considered essential for the learners to successfully do at the end of their learning experiences. In this model, the term "outcome" is the core concept and is sometimes used interchangeably with the terms "competency, "standards, "benchmarks", and "attainment targets". OBE also uses the same methodology formally and informally adopted in the actual workplace to achieve outcomes. It focuses on the following skills when developing curricula and outcomes:It is directly related to the aims and objectives of the proposed programme. NEP 2020 is enforced based on above mentioned educational outcomes. To achieve these targets, there is a need to modify the curriculum at the university level but on college-level short-term courses like yoga, IT, Communication Skills and Professional development may also be introduced.

20.Distance education/online education:

Our college GCTE Dharamshala requires the following plan of action for the implementation of the Online and Distance Mode of education by adopting the following measures: Online classes for the students Recorded Videos /Audio clips and study material for the students to be provided by the faculty members the establishment of digital libraries and virtual labs to enhance access for all learners and to provide them equal opportunities for the hands-practical and to experience the experiment-based learning environment.
